

Marek Czernis

Attorney at Law at the Regional Chamber of Attorneys at Law in Szczecin, graduate of the Faculty of Law and Administration at Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań.

Prior to founding the law firm in 1995, he worked at the English law firms in London (including Middleton Potts, Sinclair Roche) and the American law firms in New York (including Haight, Gardner Poor & Havens).

For over thirty years he has providing legal services in domestic and international trade covering, in particular, international maritime and energy sectors, international financial transactions and insurance (with particular emphasis on the London insurance and reinsurance market). The value of transactions served so far exceeds USD. 5,000,000,000.

He has also been representing local and international clients in contentious matters before domestic and foreign courts and arbitral tribunals with a value exceeding USD 1,000,000,000.

Author of numerous specialist publications.

He provides legal services in Polish, English, Russian and Hebrew.